DO YOU KNOW YOUR BODY COMPOSITION?

Come to Champion4Fitness at the Shops of Starwood, jump In the Bod Pod and find out. An ahead-of-the-curve testing system with a fully Integrated array of highly predictive measures of your health, fitness, and longevity capacity will provide it for you. These biomarkers are physiological reflections of your current status and barometers of change over time. They are quantifiable and predictable for a certain age and pinpoint exactly where you need to be.

WE WILL SEE YOU ON JULY 23, 2009!
